Intern (m/f/d) at Allianz X GmbH - limited to 4-12 months

Job Purpose/Role

Allianz X is the digital investment unit of the Allianz Group. We are investing in digital growth companies that are part of the ecosystems related to insurance. Our goal is to identify and invest in the best digital frontrunners that are strategically relevant for the Allianz Group. We provide an interface between portfolio companies and the digital ecosystem within Allianz as well as drive innovation across Allianz's operating and global lines of business.

Key Responsibilities

Allianz X's Platforms and Acquisitions team operates in close partnership with the Allianz Group and has two key functions: Scaling of our portfolio companies towards platforms and ecosystems and taking care of new acquisitions and investments into promising later stage and growth companies.

As intern, you will be involved in investment-related activities and business development. In particular, your responsibilities will include:

- Identify and assess promising targets from Allianz X's partners
- Facilitate the exchanges between Allianz X and the partners
- Support the identification of new partnerships and the development of new and existing partnerships
- Interact with cross-functional project teams from various business units within the Allianz Group
- Support the project management on monitoring the partnerships and reporting on relevant KPIs
- Prepare presentations and regular reports

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

Qualification:

- Entrepreneurial mindset and ability to identify business potential
- Passion for investments, innovative business models and digitalization
- High commitment and self-starter mentality
- Strong and continued willingness to take ownership and leave comfort zones
- Fluent in English, additional language skills are a plus
- Microsoft office skills (especially powerpoint and excel)
- Excellent proven academic record
- Bachelor in Business Administration/ Economics or other relevant fields (e.g. computer science or physics)

Experience & Key skills

- Relevant work experience in high-pace, dynamic environments is a plus

- Experience in project work, investments, startups or consulting is a plus
- Ability to quickly grasp, analyse and evaluate complex topics
- Flexibility to adapt to varying tasks and circumstances, with regards to both investment activities and business development
- Strong analytical skills and ability to communicate in a clear, well-structured manner
- Affinity to figures
